

Tipton County Administrator's Institute
June 2-4, 2009, 8:00 am – 3:00 pm
Tennessee Technology Center – Large Conference Room

Offered to current Tipton County principals and assistant principals, this institute will train, enrich and provide an opportunity for dialogue. Days 1 and 2 include Dr. Mary Montle Bacon's presentation "Building Fences Around the Mountaintop Instead of Ambulances in the Valley: A Strength Model for Serving Those Who Come From the Culture of Poverty." Day 3 will cover a variety of topics including attendance, investigations, the policy manual and more.

Administrators who will be attending are asked to submit their name via application so that we may plan for the appropriate number of attendees. Please submit the application to Marion Samuel via inter-office mail or fax by April 9, 2009. Participants will receive 14 hours of TASL credit (pending approval by the state department).
