News

Thank You for the T-shirts! We hope you like what we do with them this week.

The Ready to Read meeting with Ms. Alissa will be Thursday from 9-10 here at CIAA. This is a great opportunity to learn ways you can help your child learn to read at home and it is FREE!

Please fill out and return the Emergency Dismissal form by Thursday the 19th. We need this in case school closes early for any reason.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving break and we hope you have plenty of family time!

Activities

Monday: Native American Necklaces

Tuesday: Native American Shirts

Wednesday: Native American Bracelets

Thursday: Native American Headdress

Friday: Fun Friday

Value Plus is bringing the actor Leslie Barton to our room to tell us about theater.

Language Arts

This week we will learn about the letter U with Umbie Umbrella. We will continue to review the letters S, T, O, U, and P.

We are also finishing our unit on Thanksgiving with lessons about the Native Americans. We will use our hands to make many things just like the Native Americans did. We will also discuss what they ate and how they helped the Pilgrims learn to live from the land. We will paint a t-shirt with symbols, so be sure to ask what your child's symbol means to them.
