

Week 2 Technology Spelling Terms

---

- 1. Download: to pull information from one computer to another computer.
- 2. E-Mail: Electronic Mail, which is a message sent through the Internet with the use of a computer.
- 3. Emoticon: is a text based face normally seen in e-mail and chat rooms to show emotion or affection.
- 4. Flaming: offensive messages posted by people over the Internet.
- 5. Handle: basically, it is the username you choose when chatting online.
- 6. Home Page: the starting point or front page of a web site.
- 7. HTML (Hyper Text Markup Language) the language in which a web page is written.
- 8. Hyperlink: a word, phrase, or image you can click to jump to a new document or a section with a document.
- 9. Internet: consists of countless networks and computers, allowing millions of people to share information.
- 10. IP (Internet Protocol) Address: a code made up of numbers separated by three dots that identifies a particular computer on the Internet.